Tours

The city Tour

Phuket is the largest of Thailand's islands and a province in its own right. Once a port of call for shipping on trade routes between east and west it now attracts visitors for its tropical splendour. The early Siamese settlers came to mine tin. Later, it became a magnet for Chinese immigration and sports a variety of cultures, with almost as many mosques in the province as there are Buddhist temples. See the remaining Sino-Portuguese architecture in Phuket town, reminiscent of Malacca. Visit Wat Chalong in Chalong bay south of the city. Judge Phuket's reputation for its bounty by visits to the orchards (fruits on display depends on season), and an orchid farm, also the Laem Phromthep, a cape at the southernmost tip popular for viewing the sunset. A Thai lunch is included.
